

YOUTHS FROM 13 STATES ON TOUR OF FIELD

One hundred sixty youths from 13 states are here today for a Gettysburg tour held in connection with the sessions of the Northeastern Poultry Producers Council at the state Farm Show building in Harrisburg.

Richard C. Lighter, supervisor of agricultural education for Adams and Franklin Counties, is in general charge of the visit, which will include a tour of the battlefield, a visit to the Eisenhower Farms and an evening program in St. James Lutheran Church.

Buses transporting the youths left Harrisburg at noon today and arrived at the National Park Visitor Center at 1 o'clock. A tour of the center, briefing and tour of the battlefield, was arranged by National park historian Dr. Harry Pfanz.

DINNER TONIGHT

At 4:15 o'clock this afternoon the group visited the Eisenhower Farms where they were shown various phases of the farm operation by Robert Hartley.

A turkey dinner will be served by the Mothers' Class of St. James Lutheran Church at 5:30 p.m. At 7 o'clock a youth panel discussion will be held in the Sunday School chapel. From 8 to 10 o'clock, a "hootenanny" will be presented by a group of Gettysburg College students under the direction of Gene Cotton.

Refreshments during the "hootenanny" will be provided by the Adams County Poultry Producers Association.

The local committee included Lighter and Associate County Agent Joseph F. Lutz.

CANDIDATES TO BE QUIZZED ON WEDNESDAY

Adams Countians will have an opportunity to question candidates from both political parties at the same time Wednesday night when three county civic organizations cosponsor a "Know Your Candidates" program in the courthouse.

Appearing the Wednesday night meeting will be both candidates for Congress and both candidates for the state Senate from Adams and Franklin Counties. Also taking part will be the Democratic candidate for Adams County assemblyman.

Keynoting the session will be Wolfgang Schmidt, Mannheim, a refugee from East Germany. Schmidt will relate his personal experiences under a Communist government and will explain why Americans are fortunate to be able to participate in a free election.

Moderator for the program will be Don Becker, past president of the Pennsylvania Jaycees.

The program, which will be open to the public, will begin at 8 p.m. It is being cosponsored by the Gettysburg branch of the AAUW and the Gettysburg and Littlestown Jaycees.

Stage 2 Victory Parades Saturday

Saturday was impromptu parade day in Gettysburg. In the afternoon, immediately following Gettysburg College's football victory over Delaware, the Gettysburg College band followed by several hundred students marched up Carlisle St. to Lincoln Square, then on Chambersburg St. to N. Washington and back to college via N. Washington.

Saturday night following Gettysburg High School's football victory, the Gettysburg High School band and the students paraded up Baltimore St. to Lincoln Square, around the square and back to the high school.

G.M. And U.A.W. Settle Strike

DETROIT (AP) — General Motors Corp. and the United Auto Workers announced tentative agreement today on a national labor contract, paving the way for an end to a nationwide strike that has idled some 280,000 workers.

In a joint statement, the two parties said: "General Motors and the United Automobile Workers today announced tentative agreement on terms for a settlement of all national economic and national contract issues between the parties."

"The parties will now concentrate their efforts in resolving local issues."

NANCY DAVIS IS BRIDE OF MARLIN TATE

Miss Nancy M. Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Davis, York Springs R. 2, became the bride of Marlin R. Tate, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Tate, Idahoville, Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The Rev. Jacob Stover performed the ceremony in the Idahoville U.S. Church.

David Bushman, Arendtsville, was the organist and accompanied the soloist, Jerry Anderson, York Springs.

The bride wore a floor-length gown of antique white peau de soie with re-embroidered appliques of lace and sequins on bodice and skirt, back bow, scooped neckline, with chapel train. Her veil was of ivory illusion which fell from a seed pearl, three-tiered headpiece. She carried white pompons, roses, carnations and ivy.

Mrs. Laureate Tate, Gardner, the matron of honor, wore a pink azalea full-length gown with a sheath skirt, front bow, scooped neckline and detachable train. She carried white pompons, carnations and pink roses.

The bridal attendant, Miss Christine Davis, York Springs, niece of the bride, wore a floor-length gown of pink azalea with a petal skirt and bow in the back and matching bow in her hair. She carried pink and white roses.

Richard Tate, Gardner, brother of the groom, served as best man and the ushers were Harold Griffie, Biglerville, and Ronald Tate, Idahoville, brother of the groom. Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Lamp Post Tea Room.

The couple will reside in York Springs.

The bride is a graduate of York Springs High School and the Harrisburg Hospital School of Nursing and is employed on a surgical unit of the hospital. The bridegroom is a graduate of Bermudian Springs High School and is employed for AMP, Inc., Carlisle.

Munson, R. 2, abrasion of the upper lip when he ran into a chain at Gettysburg College.

57 East Germans Flee Reds Through Tunnel

BERLIN (AP) — Fifty-seven East Germans escaped to West Berlin through a secret tunnel during the weekend, West Berlin city authorities reported today.

The tunnel, dug under the Communist-built wall, helped 23 men, 31 women and 3 children to freedom before East German border guards discovered it.

MISS GARRETT AND J. H. KOONS WED ON SUNDAY

Miss Linda Elaine Garrett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray H. Garrett, Hanover R. 2, and John Howard Koons, son of the Rev. and Mrs. G. Howard Koons, 323 E. King St., Littlestown, were united in marriage on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock in St. David's (Sherman's) United Church of Christ, near Hanover.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by the pastor, the Rev. Harvey M. Light, pastor of the bride, and the Rev. Mr. Koons.

MRS. KOONS

pastor of Christ United Church of Christ, Littlestown, and father of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Clarence Garrett was organist and played the traditional wedding marches. The altar was decorated with bouquets of white gladioli and pompons, potted palms and candelabra.

In the first test the local operators were notified by the Adams County emergency coordinator for the Amateur Radio Emergency Corps, Harry Fackis Jr., that parts of the county were hit by tornadoes (the condition assumed for this test). The amateurs then went about the job of setting up emergency communications throughout the county. Both stationary and portable equipment was set up as well as a mobile unit. The equipment used was privately owned or owned by the society.

SECOND TEST

For the second test, the sending of messages to other parts of the county, the local chapter of the Red Cross and the Adams County Civil Defense director both originated messages to their regional offices which were relayed via amateur radio. Messages were also sent by the local operators to the American Radio Relay League giving a progress report on the local activities.

MARON TRUCK BEING SOUGHT

State police today are asking countians who may have seen two men in a maroon colored jeep pickup truck on Thursday to call them.

The vehicle had wooden racks on it and the maroon paint was spattered with primer, police said.

The officers want the two men for questioning in connection with the Thursday afternoon burglary of the home of Clarence R. Stair, Littlestown R. 1.

Police said the men apparently forced the front door at the Stair home, went to a bedroom and ransacked it until Mr. Stair returned to his home.

As Stair arrived, the two men fled the house and took off in the jeep pickup truck.

Investigation disclosed that the men took a wrist watch and a small amount of money with them when they fled the home.

$500 Damage When 2 Cars Sideswipe

Damage totaled $500 but no one was injured when two cars sideswiped Sunday evening at 6:20 o'clock on Township Rt. 506, about a half mile south of Abbottstown.

Police said damage to the 1955 car of Henry J. Brennenman Jr., 17, Abbottstown R. 1, was estimated at $200 while damage to the 1958 auto of Clair L. Strine, 23, Spring Grove R. 1, was estimated at $300.

Police are continuing their investigation into the accident.

ADAMS APPLES ON TV

Adams County apples were shown and "plugged" on a network television show, "The Price Is Right," this morning. The Adams County Fruitgrowers' Association sent 10 bushels of county apples to be given as a prize on the show together with some promotional material on the county fruit.

Man Stabbed As Hundreds Watch

NEW YORK (AP) — As hundreds watched—but offered no help—a man in the Times Square area was stabbed repeatedly Sunday afternoon by an assailant who had tried to force his attentions on the victim's wife.

Joseph Zaia, 28, and his wife, Sandra, 26, were strolling along Broadway near 47th Street when a Negro, over six feet tall and in his 30s, put his arm around Mrs. Zaia and whispered in her ear, police said.

Zaia tried to push the intruder away. The assailant drew a knife and stabbed Zaia at least five times in the neck, chest and abdomen. Then he fled through the crowd.

Zaia was reported in fair condition at St. Claire's Hospital.

LOCAL "HAMS" HOLD SPECIAL ON SATURDAY

On Saturday night members of the Adams County Amateur Radio Emergency Corps participated in a nationwide "Simulated Emergency Test." There were essentially two parts to the test. The first was a test to determine how well the local amateur radio operators could perform under emergency operating conditions. The second was to see how well emergency messages could be sent from Adams County to other parts of the country.

In the first test the local operators were notified by the Adams County emergency coordinator for the Amateur Radio Emergency Corps, Harry Fackis Jr., that parts of the county were hit by tornadoes (the condition assumed for this test). The amateurs then went about the job of setting up emergency communications throughout the county. Both stationary and portable equipment was set up as well as a mobile unit. The equipment used was privately owned or owned by the society.

2,000 ATTEND VILLAGE FAIR AT FAIRFIELD

Pigs were caught by Terry Straup and Steve Weikert. Judges were Mrs. Ira Carson, Mrs. James Hammett, (Continued On Page 3)

FULTON BAR BACKS SHEELY

The Fulton County Bar Association, according to an announcement made by Albert Foster, its president, has joined with the members of the Adams County Bar in petitioning Judge W. C. Sheely to be a candidate for reelection as president judge of the 51st Judicial District in 1965.

The petition of the members of the Adams County bar was presented to Judge Sheely in August and was followed with the announcement of his compliance with the petition and that he would be a candidate for reelection in 1965.

The 51st Judicial District comprises Adams-Fulton counties and while it is one of several districts in Pennsylvania comprising more than one county, it is the only district wherein the counties are not contiguous.

The action of the members of the Adams County Bar in petitioning Judge Sheely to become a candidate has been favorably commented upon in several of the Commonwealth's legal journals.

Three Young Men Jailed By Police

Three young men were placed in the county jail by borough police on charges before Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder Sunday morning at 2:45 o'clock.

Austin Shoemaker Jr., 20, Littlestown R. 1, was charged by police with driving during suspension. Two passengers in his car, Charles L. Deardorff, 19, 117 Chambersburg St., and Levere Legore, 19, Gettysburg R. 5, were charged with drinking beer while not yet 21 years of age.

Shoemaker late Sunday posted $500 bail to appear for court while Deardorff posted a forfeit of $34 to cover fines and costs and was released. Legore was still in jail this morning.

Cirilo M. Perez, 24, Gettysburg R. 3, was placed in the county jail by state police Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in default of $500 bail charged by the officers before Justice of the Peace Clarence Fritz with driving without an operator's license.

Nov. 18 — "What Are Some Directions for Studies in the Future?" Professors Freed and Moore.

Mrs. Wilson Home From Convention

Mrs. Mary S. Wilson, librarian at the Adams County Public Library, returned Sunday from Pittsburgh where she attended the annual convention of the Pennsylvania Library Association. The convention opened last Wednesday.

Mrs. Wilson was on a committee for arranging pre-convention workshop on political activity and introduced State Senator D. Elmer Hawbaker as a speaker. She also presided at a meeting of the Public and County Library Section of the PLA at which Mary V. Parr, a professor at Pratt Institute in Brooklyn and in charge of a children's book collection at the New York World's Fair, was the speaker.

Mrs. Wilson, the former information officer for the PLA, began her duties at Pittsburgh as the new chairman of the South Central chapter of the state organization.

PASTORS POSTPONE

The October meeting of the Adams County Pastoral Fellowship, scheduled for today, has been postponed until next Monday morning. There will be coffee at 9:30 a.m. and the meeting will begin at 10 o'clock at the Presbyterian Church here. The Rev. George I. Evans Jr., general presbyter for the Presbytery of Carlisle, will lead a discussion on "the philosophy of the church's involvement in politics."

GTC MEETS TUESDAY

The Gettysburg Travel Council will meet Tuesday evening at 6:30 o'clock at the Lincoln Logs, Lincoln Highway East. In addition to the business meeting, including discussion of the walking tour of Gettysburg, a speaker will present facts and figures on outdoor advertising.

POSTPONE MEETING

It was announced today that the October meeting of the board of supervisors of Butler Twp., scheduled for this evening, has been postponed until next Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the township election house. The change in date was made because of the illness of a member of the board.

Hurricane Leaves 35 Dead Along With Destruction, Misery; Damage Is Severe

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP) — Hilda — never a lady and now no longer a hurricane — spent the weekend in Louisiana, leaving behind death, destruction and misery.

President Johnson quickly declared the region eligible for federal disaster aid.

Thirty-five deaths were attributed to the storm, which also wiped out nearly half of Louisiana's $100-million sugar cane crop — almost ready for harvest — and caused millions more in property damage.

A Negro woman was killed at Jeanerette when a recreation center — being used to house hurricane evacuees — collapsed.

ALL 2,300 DOE LICENSES FOR COUNTY TAKEN

Adams County is out of doe licenses.

County Treasurer Daniel J. Wolff announced that the last of the 2,300 antlerless licenses issued for Adams County had been "spoken for" by Saturday morning at 11:30 o'clock. By that time 2,300 applications for the permit had been received. Those received this morning will be returned. The antlerless deer season will be held December 13 and 14. Licenses will be sent November 9.

Apparently only Pennsylvanians will have an opportunity to shoot antlerless deer in Pennsylvania this season.

Wolff said a number of residents of nearby Maryland had interrogated him concerning the licenses. The State Game Commission law provides that all licenses must be issued on request until the county treasurers run out of the licenses. Out-of-state hunters are not permitted to apply for doe licenses until 30 days before the season opens, which means that this year out-of-state applications could have been accepted on November 13.

Reports to the treasurer's office show that Adams County is not the only one in which all of the doe licenses have been issued, and some ran out before Saturday. The county treasurer noted that when the word goes out that the doe licenses are all taken, it means just that—"The State Game Commission has the right to fine a county treasurer $1,000 if he attempts to hold back any licenses—so I don't think any treasurer would take the chance."

OK Adams For Drought Aid

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Agriculture Department has designated 10 more Pennsylvania counties eligible for drought disaster aid.

The action over the weekend brings to 22 the number of counties where farmers can purchase government feed grains at reduced prices.

The latest counties designated are Northumberland, Adams, Franklin, Fulton, Juniata, Mifflin, Montour, Northampton, Perry and Snyder.

FIRST ADULT CLASSES BEGIN TONIGHT AT GHS

A registration session will be conducted this evening from 7 to 9 o'clock in the office of the Gettysburg Senior High School principal for the convenience of adults who wish to enroll in the evening school classes to be conducted at the school this fall.

After registering, pupils enrolled in classes scheduled to meet this evening will assemble in these rooms: Spanish, Room 210 in the Senior High from 7 to 10 p.m.; shorthand, Room 107, Senior High, 7 to 9; typewriting, Room 108, Senior High, 7 to 9; graphic arts, Room 116, Senior High, 7-10, and Ceramic arts, Room 103, Junior High, 7 to 10.

The director of the adult evening courses, Jack R. Corbin, said that in the event that the minimum of 12 pupils per class is not attained, all deposits and fees will be refunded by mail and the class will be cancelled or a pupil will be allowed to transfer into an active class of his second choice.

PAUL CONRAD DIES SUNDAY

Paul George Conrad, 60, 103 Main St., McSherrystown, an employee of Autocraft Box Corp., Hanover, died unexpectedly Sunday morning at 4:10 o'clock in the Hanover Hospital, where he was admitted Saturday.

He was the husband of Pauline A. Yingling Conrad, who survives with three children, Mrs. Charles Arigo, Hanover R. 4; Mrs. Francis Yealy, Hanover, and Harold Conrad, 116 North St., McSherrystown, and these brothers and sisters: Harry, Raymond and Hugh Conrad, all of Hanover; Sister Rose Marie, St. Francis Xavier School, Gettysburg; Sister Ermiel, Chestnut Hill, Philadelphia; Mrs. Elmer Simmons, York; Mrs. Carlton Zartman, Hanover, and the Misses Evelyn and Constance Conrad, Second St., McSherrystown. His parents were the late George and Margaret Yohe Conrad.

He was a member of the Annunciation of Blessed Virgin Mary Church, the Holy Name Society, and the McSherrystown Moose.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday morning with prayers at 8:30 o'clock at the Walter Funeral Home, followed by a requiem high Mass in the church, the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Patrick F. McGee, officiating. Burial will be made in the parish cemetery.

Bermudian High Senior Wins Honor

Marlin K. Stoner, a Senior at Bermudian Springs High School, is a winner of a formal Letter of Commendation for his performance in the National Merit Scholarship qualifying test given last spring. The letter of commendation is signed by his principal, Alfred R. Billett, and the president of the National Merit Scholarship Corporation.

John M. Stalnaker, president of the NMSC, said: "Letters of Commendation are being awarded to 38,000 students throughout the country in recognition of their outstanding performance on the qualifying test. We wish to call attention in this way to their high academic achievement."

"Although they did not reach the status of semifinalists in the current Merit Program, they are very capable students. The semifinalists and commended students together constitute about two percent of all high school Seniors. This certainly signifies noteworthy accomplishment by all these bright young people."

"We urge the commended students to make every effort to attend college and to develop to the fullest their promise of future achievement. By doing so they will benefit both themselves and the nation."

COLLEGE TO GIVE HONORS ON THURSDAY

A Gettysburg College academic honors assembly at 11 a.m. Thursday, in the Student Union Building will feature an address by Dr. Samuel H. Magill, dean of Dickinson College. He will speak on "The Liberal Arts College as Moral Critic of Society."

Prizes and awards to students for academic achievement during the 1963 term will be presented by Dean Charles H. Glatfelter.

Dr. Magill was appointed chairman and assistant professor of religion at Dickinson College in 1962 and was named dean of the college in 1963.

He received his A.B. in History, 1950, from the University of North Carolina and was recipient of the Algernon Sidney Sullivan award. He received his B.D. degree in 1953 from Yale University Divinity School and his Ph.D. in Religion from Duke University in 1962.

YWCA SECRETARY

Dr. Magill has served as general secretary, YMCA, Davidson College, N. C., director of student activities and assistant dean of student affairs at the University of North Carolina. While at North Carolina, he was part-time instructor in religion for two spring terms.

An ordained minister in the United Church of Christ, Dean Magill has been a frequent participant in Washington consultations of the Council on Religion and International Affairs. Last February he was a participant in an Institute for Academic Deans, Harvard University Graduate School of Business.

He holds membership in a number of professional societies and has contributed articles to several educational journals.

OTHERS BEGIN THURSDAY

Applications for Thursday evening classes will be accepted up to class time on Thursday evening and minimum class sizes will be determined at that time. Pupils who have registered or plan to register by mail will not need to report to the office but should go directly to their assigned class room.

The list for Thursday includes: Applied math, Room 201, Senior High, 7 to 10 p.m.; Survey of Modern Science, Room 214, Senior High, 7-10; electricity and electronics theory, Room 202, Senior High, 7-10; woodworking, Room 102, Junior High, 7-10; drafting, Room 120, Senior High, 7-10; welding, Room 101, Junior High, 7-10; shorthand 1 or 2, Room 107, Senior High, 7-9; sewing 1 or 2, Room 23, Junior High, 7-10; oil painting, Room 114, Senior High, 7-10; French, Room 210, Senior High, 7-10; German, Room 209, Senior High, 7-10, and Civil Defense protection, Room 206, Senior High, 7-10.

Corbin said the present enrollment figures, based on mailed applications, are low and none of the classes has attained its minimum quota so far. Prompt registration by all persons not yet enrolled will ensure the establishment of class minimums for several listed courses.

TOPPLE WATER TOWER

At Erath, the city's water tower buckled under hurricane winds, toppled on to the city hall and killed eight persons, all civil defense workers in the small Vermilion Parish town.

A Negro woman was killed at Jeanerette when a recreation center — being used to house hurricane evacuees — collapsed.

TORNADOES STRIKE

The last remnants of Hilda — now only a weak low-pressure cell — were being pushed into the Gulf of Mexico around the resort town of Fort Walton Beach, Fla., early today by a strong surge of cold air from the north.

High winds and heavy rains from Hilda knifed across southern Georgia and into South Carolina.

Three traffic deaths were attributed to Hilda's winds and accompanying rain by authorities. A repairman working on downed electric lines in New Orleans was electrocuted and a woman drowned in a rain-swollen drainage ditch.

"ON HOW TO LIVE"

Many volumes have been written . . . telling of the way to live . . . and when analyzed we find that . . . each has something good to give . . . for it seems that they were nurtured . . . from experience and tears . . . gathered by the ones who weathered . . . the relentless storm of years . . . if we follow what they teach us . . . we can stem the tides of strife . . . and derive a best from living . . . as we go along through life . . . first and foremost is the Bible . . . filled with wonderful advice . . . that will guide us over the pitfalls . . . on the road to paradise . . . as for me I try my utmost . . . to abide by teachings past . . . and I live most every moment . . . just as though it were my last.

More than 200 persons were injured — 175 at Larose alone.

200 ARE INJURED

Flash floods drove scores from their homes in the outskirts of Baton Rouge, the state's capital city, Sunday. They joined thousands of refugees from the bayou country where most of the French-speaking Cajuns live.

Baton Rouge recorded 10 inches of rain. As Hilda moved into southwest Mississippi and then curved eastward, she left 12 inches of rain at McComb.

SURPRISE STRIKE

A freak windstorm — called Hilda's backlash by the Weather Bureau — struck New Orleans' lakefront by surprise Sunday afternoon. Winds in excess of 90 m.p.h. whirled across 26-mile wide Lake Pontchartrain and pounded the seawalls. Waves of six feet or more crashed over the seawalls, crossed Lakeshore Drive and flooded fashionable homes.

New Orleans escaped the hurricane's heavy rains and winds as the storm's eye altered course after moving inland Saturday.

James Landis, Western Union operator from Fairfield, was a hit at the Village Fair at Fairfield High School Saturday afternoon even though he was hidden away at a corner of the stage. As part of the Fairfield Lions Club booth at the show, a teletype machine owned by Charles Taylor, Fairfield, was located in the booth itself. Another teletype machine, the one shown in the picture and owned by Kenneth Ickes, Fairfield, was on the stage, operated by Landis. As people went to the Lions Club booth the teletype there began to type off messages to the folk looking at it, sent by Landis from the stage. It frequently caused amazement, until attendants at the booth explained how it worked. With Landis are two small "assistants," Robin Scott and Linda Shiner. (Times photo)

2 Indicted Officials Are Back On Duty

PHILADELPHIA, Miss. (AP)

— Sheriff Lawrence Rainey and his deputy Cecil Price, both charged with civil rights violations, were back on duty today while more arrests loomed.

The Justice Department said more arrests in Neshoba County were imminent. A spokesman indicated the number might reach a dozen.

The FBI arrested Rainey, Price and three others Saturday, a day after a federal grand jury at Biloxi issued indictments accusing them of violating the civil rights of Negroes. All were released on bond.

3 OTHERS POLICE

The other three were Philadelphia policemen Neal O. Burke, 71, and Richard A. Willis, and former Sheriff Ethel G. Barnett, 42.

The indictments charged violations of the 1948 federal penal code. The five were accused of depriving the constitutional rights of Sam H. Germany, Kirk Culberson, Cleo J. Nichols Jr., Harvey Nichols Jr., Ernest Kirkland and Earl Tisdale.

A second indictment charged Rainey and Price beat Culberson in the Philadelphia jail last Jan. 26.

The indictment against all five provides a maximum penalty of one year in prison and $1,000 fine.

TWO INJURED IN BOMBINGS

VICKSBURG, Miss. (AP)

Federal and state officials pressed their investigations today of the bombing of a Vicksburg building and two shotgun blasts fired into a Meridian home, both used as headquarters for civil rights activities.

The FBI moved to sift the ruins of the Vicksburg "freedom school" damaged by an apparent dynamite bomb in the pre-dawn hours Sunday.

Two Negroes, Bessie Brown and her 2-month-old grandson, were slightly injured in the blast.

Agents also were dispatched to Meridian — directly across the state to the east — after shots entered a bedroom window of a home. There were no injuries.

Fourteen persons were in the Vicksburg building when the blast occurred.

STULL SERVICES HELD

Funeral services for Simon P. Stull, Biglerville R. 1, who died Thursday at the Warner Hospital, were held Sunday afternoon at Bethel Church, near Highfield, Md., with the Rev. Charles Leiphart, Gettysburg, officiating. Interment was made in the church cemetery. The pallbearers were D. B. Parrish, Ronald Grim, Glen A. Slaybaugh, Glenn A. Slaybaugh Jr., Bruce Sheaffer and Charles Cashtown.

COURT TO HEAR FIRST APPEALS ON RIGHTS ACT

By PAUL M. YOST

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court, in a speeded-up schedule, hears arguments today on the first two appeals involving constitutional rights of a section of the new Civil Rights Act.

Departing from tradition by calling for arguments on the opening day of a new term, the court indicated it felt an early decision should be reached on the first challenges made of the 1964 statute.

The two appeals, with their political overtones in the presidential election campaign, could be decided before Nov. 3.

FIRST APPEALS

First arguments are on an appeal by the Heart of Atlanta Motel from a decision by a three-judge federal court in Atlanta. The decision was that the public accommodations section of the new law is constitutional as applied to the motel.

Next the high tribunal hears arguments on an appeal by the Justice Department from a ruling by another three-judge court in Birmingham, Ala. The Birmingham court said the section is unconstitutional as applied to Ollie's Barbecue, a restaurant in that city.

The section states that "all persons shall be entitled to full and equal enjoyment of goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages and accommodations of any place of public accommodation, as defined in this section, without discrimination or segregation on the ground of race, color, religion or national origin."

QUESTIONS AUTHORITY

The two appeals present the question how far the section reaches under the authority of Congress to regulate interstate commerce. The interstate commerce power was the main legal basis behind congressional adoption of the section.

The Atlanta motel, headed by Moreton Rolleston Jr., an Atlanta attorney, is located adjacent to an interstate highway. It was agreed in the case that 75 per cent of its guests were from states other than Georgia. The three-judge court in Atlanta, in this first attack on the new law, said the section is constitutional under the power of Congress to regulate interstate commerce.

Ollie's Barbecue, owned by Ollie McClung Sr. and his son, Ollie Jr., is located several blocks from the nearest interstate route. The three-judge court in Birmingham, giving the new law its first setback, said Congress may control interstate commerce "only when those activities have such a close and substantial relation to interstate commerce that their control is essential or appropriate to protect that commerce from practices within a state which burden its freedom or obstruct its flow."

Reuther said that finding the key to one of the 16,000 remaining issues might unlock the solution to several hundred others, since many concerned parallel problems at GM plants from coast to coast.

More than a quarter of a million workers were pulled off GM's assembly lines just as the new models were beginning to roll out of the factories in large numbers.

Only those plants which turned out the company's autos and trucks were hit. Workers at factories producing parts and accessories purchased by GM's chief competitors — Ford and Chrysler — were ordered to stay on the job.

SMITH DEMANDS
"We thought it was the better part of wisdom to concentrate on the national issues now to see if we can make some headway there," Reuther explained.

Lewis G. Seaton, GM vice president, who heads the company's negotiating team, said the decision to switch attention from local plant demands to national differences came because progress was too slow on the local level.

The nationwide strike was called Sept. 25 when the two sides failed to agree on non-economic issues, although they admittedly were close to agreement on an economic package paralleling settlements at Ford and Chrysler.

LISTS WHITTLED
After a week of negotiations on more than 18,000 local demands, the list had been whittled down by little more than 2,000.

Official Warren Report On Assassination Of President Kennedy To Be In Book Form

The official report of the Warren Commission on its investigation into the assassination of former President John F. Kennedy will be published in book form by The Associated Press and will be sold in this area by The Gettysburg Times.

The book, containing more than 300,000 words, will be available at $2.00 (which includes tax) paid in advance. The books will be available on a first-order, first-delivery basis.

The edition will be a handsome, durable illustrated volume and will be rushed to press as soon as the text is released. Each book will be in an individual carton.

Never before has such a truly historic document been attempted and The Associated Press anticipates record orders.

If you wish a copy send your check, money order or cash ($2.00) to The Gettysburg Times, Warren Report Book, Gettysburg, Pa. If you wish your copy mailed to you send $2.20, which includes postage.

Heller Services Held On Saturday

Funeral services for Earl B.

Heller, Enola, formerly of this county, who died last Tuesday at the Veterans' Administration Hospital in Lebanon, were held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Dugan Funeral Home at Bendersville. The Rev. Ira J. Kiner, pastor of the Church of God at Enola, officiated.

Interment took place in the Wrensville Cemetery where military rites were conducted by members of the Ira Lady Post of the American Legion. Lloyd Rau was commander and the color guard included Kenneth Guise, Clarence Wilson and James Cover. In the firing squad were Samuel Helsley, Ralph Starnes, John Stover and Paul Osborn Jr. Van Clark and Rush Stover were buglers.

The pallbearers were Emmett Warren, Roy Black, Richard Baldwin, Donald Wenk, Amos Sheaffer and Waybright Black.

Parents, One Child Killed In Crash
HARRISBURG (AP)—A York couple and one of their three children were killed today when their automobile ran off a rural road and crashed into a tree near Harrisburg.

State police identified the dead as:

Charles H. Haas, 32, York; his wife, Joan, 30, and their 7-year-old son, Terry.

Two other Haas children were injured and taken to Harrisburg Hospital. They were Charles, 8, and Mary Ann, 5. They were not seriously injured, hospital attendants reported.

The accident occurred about three miles from Linglestown.

SEDAN IS DAMAGED

Rose Spahr, E. Water St., reported to borough police that her 1962 sedan was damaged to the extent of $10 when an unknown motorist struck the left side of the vehicle while it was parked on the south side of the street.

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Thomas Keller, 19, of St. Marys died Sunday in Pittsburgh's Mercy Hospital of head injuries suffered Sept. 27 in a traffic crash in Elk County.

Among other things, the scientists believe the computerized study will estimate the cost of various pollution-reducing proposals.

Out Of The Past

From the Files of the

The Gettysburg Times

ONE HUNDRED YEARS AGO

Union meetings of the most enthusiastic character were held throughout the county during the past week. We have all been furnished with lists of officers, except in one or two instances; and as we have not all we will not discriminate. It is enough for us to say that the good work is going on well, and the patriots of the country are alive to their best and endeared interests.

The indications are that there will be no draft in Adams County — at least the Board, we understand, has not determined when the drawing shall be commenced. A majority of the sub districts have filled their quotas while the balance with a few exceptions have the money raised and will fill up if a little time is allowed.

A Plain Exposition Of What Will Result From The Election:

A contemporary thus briefly and forcibly sets forth the attitude of the two candidates for the Presidency, respectively, now before the American people. The cannot be resisted by those who love their country. As an exposition of McClellan's propositions and Lincoln's intentions, it comes nearer a fair statement of the facts involved in the contest, than anything we have read since the campaign opened: I. McClellan proposes to beg peace of the rebels. Lincoln intends that the rebels shall beg peace of him. II. McClellan proposes to give the traitors in arms an armistice — a breathing spell wherein they may recruit their armies, rebuild their battered fortifications and fit up their piratical ships to devastate our commerce. Lincoln intends to give their wicked minds no peace or rest until they hoist the white flag and surrender at discretion. III. McClellan proposes to save the country by the kind permission of the slaveholders. Lincoln intends to save the country whether the slaveholders consent or not. IV. McClellan proposes to restore the Union with slavery. Lincoln intends to restore the Union without slavery. V. McClellan proposes to read only white soldiers into the field. Lincoln intends that the blood of black men shall not be deemed more sacred than that of white men and that they too shall fight for the nation and freedom. VI. McClellan intends to break our national word, pledged to the negroes and the civilized world, that this nation shall come out of the war a nation of freemen. Lincoln intends to keep our pledged faith and throne of human liberty. VII. McClellan proposes to stand on his record, which is a record of failures. Lincoln intends to stand on his record, which is a record of successes. VIII. McClellan proposes to fill the highest offices with men of the same party and of the same sympathies as those whose treason brought on the war. Lincoln intends that none but such as are thoroughly devoted to the Union shall fill places of trust. IX. McClellan proposes to carry on the war by a series of masterly retreats. Lincoln proposes to carry on the war by a series of unceasing advances

Today's Talk

SELFNESS

There is so much that is the matter with the world — which, of course, means the people in it — that it would take a Solomon to offer a complete solution, but I believe I am safe in saying that one of the greatest causes of our trouble, anxiety, and fear, is that we harbor selfness. We are all wrapped up in ourselves and our own concerns.

We are still our "brother's keeper" to a very large extent, without working at it! Any organization must work as a team if it would be efficient and move forward. It's the football team that wins the game! Just let one man shirk or try to "star," without cooperation with the rest of the team, and the game is usually lost. Selfness is always disastrous.

No "One World" peace will ever come about until all the nations concerned abolish their selfness, and pool their interests for the good of all. There is need for a new distribution of faith, confidence, mutual interest, and an overall will to make them work for all time, and not just until "another war" can be arranged. We want no more stupid, and suicidal wars. At least the people of all countries do not.

I like these community chest affairs. They awaken people to a sense of their responsibility to others. They help to abolish this poison of selfness. They stimulate comradeship and friendliness. William E. Gladstone, that great English statesman, once said: "It is the duty of government to make it difficult for people to do wrong, and easy to do right." When we help someone else to do right, we ourselves grow more right.

All Nature is cooperative. We ought to study her more, for a great Manager site, as Overseer, directing all her moves and changes. There is no selfness to anything in Nature. There are dependencies in every direction. The tree must have the sun, the wind, the rain, and the moisture, and live giving elements that lie cooperative in the ground.

We have gathered too many fears. We need a melting of them from our mental and bodily structure. Suppose nobody cared in this world! Then where would you and I be? It is our privilege to care, and to help clear the mist, before it envelops us all.

MISS MYERS, R. L. GLADHILL WED SATURDAY

Miss Patricia Kay Myers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Preston L. Myers, 60 E. Myrtle St., Littlestown, became the bride of Ronald Leroy Gladhill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Gladhill, Littlestown R. 2, in a double-ring ceremony performed in St. John's Lutheran

MRS. GLADHILL

Church at Littlestown Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The pastor, the Rev. William C. Karns, officiated.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a full-length gown of satin-peau, styled with a rounded neckline, tapering to a V in the back. Her long sleeves ended in points over her hands. Alencon lace appliques and iridescent sequins adorned the bodice and front of the skirt. A self-made flower at the waist in the back ended in a chapel train. Her elbow-length veil of silk illusion fell from a crown of matching lace appliques. She carried a Bible with an orchid corsage.

ATTENDED BY SISTER

Mrs. Kenneth Lemon of Camp Hill, a sister of the bride, was the matron of honor. She wore a gold street-length dress of satin with a rounded neckline tapering to a V in the back. The sleeves were elbow-length and the skirt bell-shaped. Her chin-length veil fell from a flower matching the dress. She carried a cascade of carnations and roses.

Miss Janice Evans, Littlestown, wore a Kelly green dress made like that of the matron of honor. Mrs. John Feeser, Main St., Hampstead, Md., wore a Kelly green dress made like that of Mrs. Lemmon. Both wore matching headpieces and her flowers were like those of the matron of honor.

Kenneth Lemmon, Camp Hill, brother-in-law of the bride, was the best man and the ushers were Michael Gladhill, Littlestown R. 2, a brother of the bridegroom, and Paul Krom, near Taneytown.

Dwight Gladhill, a brother of the bridegroom, was ring bearer and Jolie Hall, niece of the bride, Littlestown R. 2, was flower girl. She wore a white satin dress with a gold sash and carried a basket of rose petals.

Mrs. Robert W. Hall, Littlestown R. 2, sang "Because," "The Wedding Prayer," "I Love You Truly" and during the ceremony "The Lord's Prayer." Mrs. Jay Basehor was the organist. The church was decorated with palms and the altar flowers were white carnations. Edward Strevig, Littlestown R. 1, was the acolyte.

After the ceremony, there was a reception in the church social room for 250 guests. Then the couple left on a wedding trip to Niagara Falls. For going away the bride wore a black and white checked two-piece dress with black patent leather accessories. Upon their return they will reside at 505 W. King St. in Littlestown.

The bride is a graduate of Littlestown High School in the class of 1963 and is employed by the Littonian Shoe Company. Mr. Gladhill is a Littlestown High graduate in 1962 and is employed at Littlestown by the Adams County National Bank.

Today In Washington

WASHINGTON (AP) — In the news from Washington:

DEMOCRATS: A group of House Democrats want party privileges stripped from Democratic members who oppose President Johnson in his election campaign.

Rep. John A. Blatnik, D-Minn., heading the group of 10 House members, said Friday they will contest the seating as Democrats next January of any member who "supported, campaigned for or otherwise advocated" the election of any presidential candidate other than the party's nominee.

Blatnik said the action will be directed against any member who supports an unpledged, or independent slate of electors. Thus it would appear to be aimed principally at Mississippi and Alabama members, all Democrats.

In Mississippi top state Democratic leaders are openly supporting Republican Barry Goldwater. In Alabama a slate of unpledged electors represents the only alternative to the slate pledged to the GOP nominee.

JOHNSON-STUDENTS: The campus moves to the White House tonight as 230 selected college students answer an invitation from President Johnson to receive reports on the state of the nation at first hand from key officials.

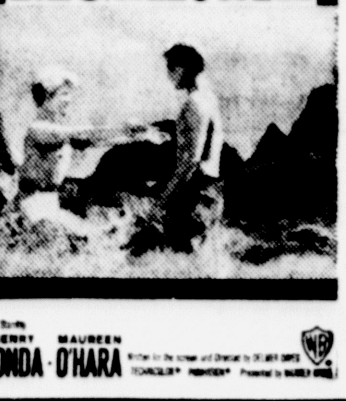

The students were selected by their college presidents on the basis of their academic grades, quality of leadership and interest in public affairs. The U.S. Office of Education named the colleges to be represented.

MACAPAGAL: President Johnson will hold two conferences with President Diosdado Macapagal of the Philippines during his visit to Washington Monday and Tuesday.

PLAN HARVEST HOME SERVICE

The annual harvest home service will be held in St. John's Lutheran Church next Sunday at 10:15 a.m. Home canned and commercial foods to decorate the chancel should be taken to the church Saturday afternoon. The decorating will be in charge of the Tuch-a-Bache Class and members of the class are asked to meet at the church Saturday at 3 p.m.

Parents of Seventh and Eighth Graders are reminded that the new curriculum of the Lutheran Church requires three years of study for confirmation. The first two years are given during Sunday School hour and the third year of instruction is given at the meeting of the catechetical class each Sunday at 5 p.m.

The annual membership drive for the York Lutheran Home for the Aged has begun and will conclude November 16. Membership dues of $1 should be given to Mrs. Harry W. Badders.

Mrs. George Cool will be leader at the meeting of the Lutheran Church Women Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. at the church; the October hostesses will be Mrs. William J. Lippy and Mrs. Kenneth W. Miller. The Senior Choir will rehearse at 8 p.m. Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Glenn N. Lippy, near town, will be hosts to the Christian Homemakers Class at 7:30 p.m. Thursday.

Holy Communion services were held Sunday in St. John's Church. The Scripture lesson was read from John 6:32-40. The ushers and communion assistants were Elmer C. Coppersmith, Paul F. Bolter Jr., W. E. Mackley, Gene R. Renner. The altar flowers were placed by Mr. and Mrs. Sterling J. Wisotzkey.

HOLIDAY INN IS HELD UP AGAIN

ALLENTOWN, Pa. (AP)—An armed bandit wearing a grotesque Halloween mask held up the Holiday Inn motel seven miles west of here today, for the second time in less than 24 hours night clerk Paul Ogle told police.

The bandit, believed by police to be one who has pulled five other similar holdups in the Allentown, Pa.-Phillipsburg, N.J. area since mid September, got $260 this morning. Sunday morning he got away with $350, Ogle 57, of Allentown, told the state police. Ogle was the victim both times.

The bandit held up the same Holiday Inn on Sept. 18 and got about $400. At that time he wore a red wig and carried a sawed off shot gun. Today he carried a revolver.

The six holdups believed pulled by the same bandit have yielded about $1,500.

Harpo Marx Leaves Estate Of Million

INDIO, Calif. (AP) — An estate of more than a million dollars was left by comedian Harpo Marx.

Marx, the silent, harp-playing member of the Marx Brothers comedy team, died Sept. 28 at 75. His will was filed for probate Saturday.

Named sole beneficiary was Marx's wife of 28 years, former actress Susan Fleming.

When Roger Maris hit 61 home runs in 1961 and Mickey Mantle smacked 54 these were the most homers ever hit by two players on the same team in one season.

Matrimony Banns Are Published

During the Sunday morning Masses in St. Aloysius Catholic Church, banns of matrimony were announced for the first time between John R. Rudisill Jr., of the parish, and Miss Sylvia M. Weaver, of St. Joseph's Parish, Bonneauville.

The Rev. Dr. John E. Metz, pastor, will celebrate Holy Mass Tuesday through Friday at 8:15 a.m. in the church; Saturday at 7:30 a.m. in the church. Holy Communion will be administered outside of Mass Tuesday through Friday, in the church at 7:15 a.m.

The annual Holy Hour, sponsored by the Conewago Deanery, Union of Holy Name Societies will be held next Sunday afternoon at St. Ignatius Church, Buchanan Valley. A Lovelier You

By MARY SUE MILLER

IN THE NAME OF FEMINITY. The inside of a handbag is apt to look less inviting than the inside of a small boy's pockets. Junior at least is in character with his rusty nails and grubby bits of string.

But how in the name of femininity are you to judge a lovely who totes a rusty compact and a grubby puff? Not to mention a messy comb and lipstick.

Witnessing such a display, the male sex really must speculate on the state of a lady's private domain. And why not? Visible signs of untidy habits are a sure cue to utter chaos behind the scenes. Let's not have the judgment fall on anyone we know. Purse cosmetics are always presentable if they are simply refurbished on a regular basis. A "dry" sudsing keeps compacts, lipsticks and mirrors in sparkling condition.

Puffs and combs, of course, require a thorough dousing. When a puff becomes indelibly stained, it should be replaced at once. Replacements are now available in shapes and sizes to fit most any compact. Another solution is a packet of disposable cotton balls.

Even with good care, compact and lipstick cases eventually become shabby. Combs lose their teeth and look downright ugly. Yet we girls persist in carrying worn gear. Why do you suppose? Are we that economy minded? You just know it's not so!

4 COMMUNIONS AT ST. PAUL'S

Four services of Holy Communion were held Sunday in St. Paul's Lutheran Church. The Senior, Junior and Luther League Choirs sang at the various services. The scriptures were read from Proverbs, Ephesians and Matthew. The pastor, the Rev. Graham T. Rinehart, delivered a sermon on the subjects "A New Beginning and Renewed Spirit."

The third annual Bible workshop will be held in St. Paul's Church beginning Monday, October 26, from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. for six weeks. Three courses will be offered: "Love, Sex and Life," "For Christian Parents of Ninth to Twelfth Graders" and "Adult Bible Study." All persons will receive an accreditation card upon satisfactorily completing the course. There is no registration charge but an offering will be received at each meeting. Each person is required to have a textbook. The registration deadline is October 11.

The seminary student assistant will begin his duties at St. Paul's next Sunday. Those wishing to have the seminarian, his wife and three children in their home on Sundays are asked to contact the secretary, Mrs. William R. Keefer.

A series of study meetings on the subject of worship are being held in early October throughout the Central Synod. The workshops for this area will be held in New Oxford this evening at 7:30 o'clock and on Thursday night in York.

On October 18, the 8 a.m. worship and 9:15 a.m. Sunday School will be held as usual. The late service will be held at 10:45 a.m. at the Gettysburg Seminary Chapel. There will be no 10:30 a.m. service that Sunday in St. Paul's.

The Intermediate Choir will rehearse this evening at 6:30 o'clock; a Halloween party will be held in connection with the Loyalty Class meeting tonight at 7:30 o'clock at the church. The meet at 3:30 p.m. Tuesday. The October session of the council will be held at the church on Wednesday at 7 p.m.; Thursday at 3:30 p.m., Senior Catechetical Class meeting; 6:15 p.m., Junior Choir rehearsal; 7 p.m., Senior Choir rehearsal. The stewardship committee will meet next Sunday at 6:30 p.m.

"We're number one, we're number one," was the cry that went up from the stands when Ken Snyder pulled in an aerial which left 5,300 fans blinking their eyes in disbelief. That was one of the many tense moments Saturday afternoon when Coach Gene Haas and his Gettysburg College football team banged out a 22-19 upset win over the Blue Hens of the University of Delaware on Memorial Field on a perfect fall afternoon.

Dave Nelson's Hens were the nation's number one small college team a year ago and retained the first spot through this year's initial balloting. The students were chanting it was now time for the Bullets to replace their foe.

SENSATIONAL FINISH

Ward then pitched wide to Ken Snyder who in turn fired a pass to end Dick Masin covering 13 yards to the 25. Now it was fourth and two on their own 25 with about 4:06 to go. Ward, going for broke, hit Ken Snyder on the sidelines for five yards and Gettysburg had its first down. Ward then hit Snyder for 30 yards, connected with Masin for eight more and then back to Snyder for 29 yards. Before Snyder pulled in the toss he had to leap high in the air to snatch the pigskin from the hands of defensive end and cocaptain Ron Bianco. It was first and goal on the three and the next play Ward winged an aerial into the end zone to the waiting Tom McCracken for the game-winning TD.

Following the kickoff, cocaptain Mark Snyder assured the Bullets of their victory by intercepting a Tom Van Grofski pass on the Delaware 16 and Bullets ran out the clock.

Every man on the Bullet squad did his job well on Saturday. Both lines turned in the best job that has been seen in this area in a long time. Delaware used two units in the line but went almost the whole distance with their backs. This is probably the first time Coach Nelson has had to resort to this in three years.

HENS SCORE EARLY

Delaware gave the impression that they had things pretty well under control when they took the opening kickoff and marched 74 yards on 13 plays with Mike McCann bouncing over from the one for the touchdown. Buddy Luby booted the placement and everyone settled down to a long game.

The Bullets came right back. Ward began mixing his plays well and on eight plays Gettysburg advanced from its 26 to the Delaware 15. On the ninth play Ward rifled a pass into the left corner to waiting arms of Dale Boyd for the TD. The Bullets went into place kick formation for the conversion, but, as the ball was snapped, Ward sprang to his feet and tossed the ball over the line to Ken Snyder for the two extra points and Gettysburg led 8-7.

Throughout much of the first half both teams banged away at each other exchanging possession of the pigskin nine times. Finally towards the end of the second quarter, the Hens took over on their 21 following a Ward punt. VanGrofski started hitting his receivers and on nine passes had carried the team to the Bullet's 18. However, defensive specialist, Al Hall, 5'9", 170, leaped up and intercepted a Delaware pass on the Gettysburg 15 stopping the drive and ending the half. Gettysburg still led 8-7.

HOPKINS AGAIN
Jack Istnick, Delaware's top defensive safety man, intercepted a Ward pass midway through the third period to set the stage for the Hens' second TD. With the ball on the Bullet 42, VanGrofski tossed for 31 yards and Bill Hopkins carried for one to the 11. Hopkins then finished the drive with an off tackle slant with 8:21 gone by in the period. VanGrofski's run for the two points was stopped.

Four minutes later Gettysburg was again in the lead. The Bullets took over on their 35 following four unsuccessful Hen downs. Five plays later Don Enders, who directed the entire drive, hit Tom McCracken from 21 yards for the TD. McCracken, who never played high school football, worked his way behind the defense to make the picture catch. Bob Kinsey's placement attempt was low and wide following a five-yard penalty.

Delaware took the kickoff and marched 70 yards on 11 plays for its final score. Again Hopkins, on the off tackle play, streaked the last 14 yards of the drive for the six-point. VanGrofski's pass for the two points fell incomplete.

The stage was now set for Gettysburg's dramatic story book finish. This the Bullets carried off with perfection as if Haas had written the script.

Gettysburg gained 59 yards rushing and 231 passing for a 290 total offense. On the other hand, Delaware gained 196 yards on the ground and 138 in the air for a total of 334 yards. Jim Ward hit on 14 of 21 aerials for 144 yards while VanGrofski hit on 15 of 23 throws for 133 yards. Enders completed six of 13 tosses for 74 yards. Ken Snyder boosted his point production to 23 on the season with four extra points.

LONG STREAK SNAPPED

The loss was Delaware's first in 13 games dating back to 1962 and also the first MAC loss in the same time period. The win gave Gettysburg its first over the Blue Hens in 10 years.

Gettysburg will play its only night game of the season when the Bullets meet Albright next Saturday in Reading.

49ERS JOLT BEARS WHILE GIANTS LOSE

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

Turn the National Football League standings upside down and they'd make a bit more sense—at least to George Halas and Allie Sherman.

Last December Sherman's New York Giants and Halas' Chicago Bears emerged on top of the NFL's Eastern and Western Division races. The only way you can get them up there today is by flipping those standings.

GIANTS BATTERED

San Francisco's 49ers, tail-enders a year ago, surprised the Bears 31-21 and the Detroit Lions battered the Giants 26-3. Elsewhere in the NFL, Baltimore ripped Los Angeles 35-20, Cleveland humbled Dallas 27-6. St. Louis whipped Washington 23-17. Philadelphia downed Pittsburgh 21-7 and Minnesota nipped Green Bay 24-23.

John Brodie flipped three touchdown passes as the 49ers, who equaled last year's winning total with their second victory, jumped out to a 17-point lead. Billy Wade, with three TD flips of his own, led a late Bear surge but it was too little too late.

The loss was the third in four starts for Chicago. The Giants have the same record in the East and only winless Washington is keeping New York out of the cellar.

ONE-SIDED AFFAIR

The Lions thrashed New York with a 19-point second period and throttled Y. A. Tittle's offense all day. The Giants reached Detroit territory only twice in the first half.

Earl Morrall started the Lion romp when, after lining up his club for a field goal attempt and setting himself to take the centering pass, he suddenly jumped up and lofted a 23-yard scoring pitch to Nick Ryder. The Giants never recovered.

The Colts took over the Western Division lead after getting a scare from the surprising Rams. Los Angeles held a 13-7 halftime margin before Johnny Unitas began bombing. Unitas connected on three scoring pitches with Jimmy Orr clicking for 43, 35, and 46 yards. Lennie Moore scored twice for the Colts.

TIED FOR LEAD

The Cardinal line swarmed all over Sonny Jurgensen and George Izo as Washington lost its fourth straight. St. Louis held the Skins to a net gain of eight yards in the first half, throwing Jurgensen for losses eight times.

The victory kept St. Louis deadlocked for the Eastern lead with Cleveland which routed Dallas behind Frank Ryan's passing.

ARCHERS HAVE GOOD OPENER

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The first day of archery deer season in Pennsylvania Saturday was a productive one with better than 350 kills being reported—about 150 more than opening day last year.

The bow-and-arrow season, with a one-deer-per-hunter limit, got off under clear blue skies and pleasant temperatures.

Although the turnout was good, game wardens across the state generally estimated that not as many hunters were in the woods this year as last.

The archers were aided, in addition to the near perfect weather, with a soft cushion of damp leaves to stalk their prey.

The only two injuries reported were minor in nature. One hunter in Clarion County and another in Warren each was reported to have cut himself slightly with an arrow.

The day also was free of major violations of the state game laws.

The north central division reported the largest estimated first day kill of 150.

Franklin County led the state with 30 reported, 20 in Letterkenny depot.

SUNDAY'S STARS

PITCHING — Bob Gibson and Barney Scholtz, Cardinals, came on in relief and protected an 11-5 victory over the New York Mets that brought St. Louis its first National League pennant since 1946.

BATTING — Richie Allen, Phillies, slammed two homers and a double, driving in four runs in 10-0 victory over Cincinnati that kept Reds from tying Cardinals for National League pennant.

Moving almost at will in a tremendous offensive showing, the Gettysburg High School football team rolled to its second win of the year by turning back Camp Hill 20-12 here Saturday evening.

The Warriors needed the important Blue Mountain League win and approximately 1,600 fans saw them get just that. Coach Don Young's tribe is now 2-1 in the conference and 2-1 overall while the loss gives Camp Hill a 1-2 league slate and a 2-2 overall record.

The story can once again be told in one word, Finkboner. However, the big 202-pound quarterback had plenty of help in doing it. It was not like the first three games when he was forced to open his own holes and plow for extra yardage. Saturday evening Finkboner received some of the best blocking the Warriors have come with in years. Dave Perdue, Ron Plank, Tom Hefflin, Dave Lutz and Dick Walker all paved the way. Mike Herring also came up with some key blocks of his own and also ran well when called upon. Jim Rowe and John Waybright turned in a fine job of giving the backs some running room up the middle.

FINKBONER SCORES

Gettysburg gave the impression it was going to bury its opponent from the banks of the Susquehanna. Taking the opening kickoff, the Warriors drove 52 yards on plays with Dick Finkboner crashing off left tackle for the last 20 yards. He also booted the placements, his first of two.

Camp Hill put the situation in reverse as it took the next kickoff and romped 62 yards to the Gettysburg 11 before it had to give up the ball on downs. Gettysburg took possession traveled 89 yards in the opposite direction for its next score in the second period.

The drive took up the last six plays of the first period and climaxed at the end of the first six plays of the second frame. This time Finkboner hit flanker Ron Plank in the end zone from six yards out. Gettysburg led 13-0 at intermission. Just before the half closed out, Gettysburg had driven to the Lions' 16 yard line and lost possession when John Frazier intercepted a Finkboner aerial in the end zone.

Camp Hill carried the pigskin 53 yards to the Gettysburg 27 following the second half kickoff but again ran out of gas. The ball then exchanged hands four times as the third period closed and the Warriors were still in front 13-0.

On the fourth play of the final period, second unit quarterback Charlie Raffensperger intercepted a Laurie Roberts pass on the Camp Hill 35 and was dropped in his tracks. Finkboner then ran for 12 and Herring added four more to the Lions' 19. Finkboner then stepped back and rifled a to Dave Perdue, who picked up an excellent block from Walker, completing the 19-yard scoring play. Finkboner kicked the placement.

LIONS RALLY
Camp Hill came to life in the remaining moments of the game but just didn't have enough time to carry out its mission. It all started following the kickoff. Roberts, on the first play from scrimmage, picked up two key blocks and romped 63 yards to pay dirt and the first Lion score. This came with 7:45 to go in the game.

Several minutes later, Ron Newman intercepted a Jim Whetstone pass, but on the next play gave the ball back to the Lions when he fumbled on the Warrior 40. Taking advantage of three long Whetstone passes and a penalty, Camp Hill charged to the Warrior three from where Dave Shanahan plunged over for the score.

The Lion touchdown came with 56 seconds remaining in the game. Finkboner and Raffensperger then took their time just diving into the line running out the clock.

HUTCH SEES REDS LOSE IN PENNANT BID

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer
CINCINNATI (AP) — Dick Sisler proudly pulled a shiny new baseball out of a cardboard box and held it out for all to see. "To Dick, who did a great job and a hell of a guy," was scrawled across the ball. It was signed, "Fred Hutchinson."

Over in the clubhouse of the Philadelphia Phillies, who had blown a 6½ game lead and the National League pennant in the last two weeks, Manager Gene Mauch was talking about Hutch Sunday night.

SUNDAY EFFORT FUTILE
"He called me up Friday night before the game," said Mauch whose club had lost 10 in a row going into Friday's game. "He said 'I wish there was something I could say to make you feel better. Imagine. He wants me to feel better.'"

Hutchinson is suffering from cancer. He fought the pain and stayed as manager of the Cincinnati Reds until he couldn't stand it any more. Finally, Sisler took over as acting manager and brought the Reds to within a whisper of the pennant.

The Reds, and Phillies, too, were still alive Sunday until the Phils rolled to a ridiculously easy 10-0 victory. It was a futile effort, because St. Louis' win over the New York Mets left the two contenders tied for second place.

HUTCH WAS THERE
Hutch was on hand for the game. After it was over he came into his old office where Sisler was talking to newsmen.

"I'm very sorry we couldn't have won it for that gentleman over there," Sisler said, pointing to Hutchinson.

"I'm just sorry the players couldn't have won it for themselves," said Hutchinson. "But they gave it a great effort."

Now that it is all over, Hutchinson will return to his home at Bradenton Beach, Fla., his future clouded.

The Phils sat in their clubhouse, staring at the wall, while details of the Cardinals' mounting score, were relayed to them.

"HAD IT IN OUR HANDS"
"We can't expect miracles," said Wes Covington. "We had it in our hands. We shouldn't feel bad because the Mets didn't beat them three straight. Six and a half ahead with 12 to go, you can't expect nobody to help but yourself."

Gus Triandos, the ex-Yankee who came to the Phillies from Detroit in the same off-season deal that brought Jim Bunning, winner of his 19th in the finale, took it hard.

"I guess I was more disappointed than anyone," he said. "Anybody my age (34) feels that way. There might not be another chance."

He looked up as Bunning walked out of the shower and, attempting a feeble joke, said, "It's not snowing blue."

Mauch's first comment was, "I wish I'd done as well as the players. That's all I want to say."

"NO SATISFACTION"
Later he opened up a bit more.

"I said in the spring I thought if our club won 95 it would be enough. It would have been. But we only won 92," Mauch added.

Were there things he would have done differently if he had another chance?

"If I knew how things were going to turn out I might have tried a couple of things. I've got all winter to look back," he replied.

When asked if the final bounce-back victories in the last two games, brought him any satisfaction, Mauch answered glumly:

"I get no satisfaction out of finishing second."

Hot Finish Puts Chisox In 2nd Place In AL, Only Game Behind Top Yankees

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer
Tony Oliva has the American League batting championship, Brooks Robinson has the RBI title and the Chicago White Sox have baseball's longest winning streak.
The New York Yankees, though, have the AL pennant.
The White Sox, who whipped Kansas City 6-0 Sunday for their ninth consecutive triumph, barely missed tying the Yankees, who clinched their fifth straight pennant Saturday, then lost 2-1 in 13 innings to Cleveland on the final day of the season.
TWINS ARE 6TH
As a result, Chicago finished one game back in second place and will have to wait until April 1965, to extend its streak. New York, meanwhile, will play the St. Louis Cardinals in the World Series starting Wednesday.
The Minnesota Twins losing to Los Angeles 3-0, finished in a sixth-place tie, but their Rookie of the Year candidate, Oliva, wound up the season with a .323 average, becoming the first rookie to win a batting title in modern major league history.
Oliva hit six points better than Baltimore's Robinson, who won the runs-batted-in title with 118. Runner-up to Robinson was Dick Stuart of Boston, who won the crown last year.
STUART MISSED CHANCE
Stuart, always a controversial figure, had 112 RBI going into the Red Sox' game with Washington. Robinson was idle since the Orioles and Detroit had concluded their seasons the day before.
The Boston slugger came to bat in the first inning with runners at second and third. Instead of seeing two runners, though, Stuart saw two RBI. That's why he whirled in rage, glaring at the Senators' dugout, when Washington Manager Gil Hodges ordered an intentional walk for the batter.
In his following four at bats, Stuart saw a total of five runners aboard. He managed to drive in two of them—on a double—and was forced to settle for second place. Just like the White Sox.
INDIANS WIN LAST
The Indians, who had lost 15 of 17 games to New York, won the final contest with a run in the 13th inning. Vic Davalillo led off with a bunt single, moved to third on Fred Whitfield's single and came home as Leon Wagner hit into a force play.
Rookie Bruce Howard pitched a two-hitter for the White Sox while Tom McCraw scored one of the daffier runs of the long season.
McCraw walked in the sixth inning, but the fourth ball was a wild pitch, and he raced to second. Athletics' catcher Dave Duncan retrieved the ball and threw it into center field. Over to third base went McCraw, and he continued home as Nelson Mathews fired the ball past third.
NEWARK BEARS DRUB IRONMEN
By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Pittsburgh Valley Iron made their second trip of the Atlantic Coast Football League season into north Jersey Saturday night and suffered their second defeat of the campaign, a 31-6 drubbing at the hands of the Newark Bears. The other setback came Sept. 12, also in Jersey City.
The defeat dropped the Ironmen out of first place in the Southern Division. Their 6-2 record has them in third place, a half game in back of Newark and Jersey City, tied for first at 6-1. The Giants had a scare against lowly Atlanta before managing a 21-10 victory.
HARRISBURG CRUSHED
In other action, the Boston Sweepers (7-1) maintained their one-game lead over Providence (6-2-1) in the Northern Division with a 31-10 triumph over Portland. The Steamrollers kept pace by crushing Harrisburg, 58-17.
Rounding out the schedule, Westchester upset Hartford, 19-2; Springfield trampled Mohawk Valley, 51-14, and Richmond walloped Hazleton, 55-12.
Providence unloaded eight touchdowns, six conversions and two safeties and scored in every period to trounce Harrisburg.
The Standings:

DIRECTORS FIRE JACK FAULKNER

DENVER (AP)—Young Jack Faulkner was out of work today, his four-year contract as head coach of the Denver Broncos terminated in the middle of his third and losing season.
The Boston Patriots' 39-10 victory Sunday — the fourth straight loss for Denver — brought this terse announcement from Calvin W. Kunz, president of the American Football League club:
"The board of directors of Empire Sports, Inc., has decided to terminate the services of Jack Faulkner as head coach and general manager. . . a successor will be selected and announced shortly."
The 39-year-old Faulkner, a former assistant coach of the Los Angeles Rams and San Diego Chargers, produced only nine victories while losing 22 games in Denver. One game ended in a tie.
TIMMY BROWN LEADS EAGLES TO 21-7 WIN
By RALPH BERNSTEIN
Associated Press Sports Writer
PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Timmy Brown is healthy of mind and body again, which means trouble for opponents of the Philadelphia Eagles.
Brown gained almost 2,500 yards last year for the Eagles in the National Football League. In the first four games this season he has been conspicuous by his superb performance.
But Sunday, he was the swift running Brown of old, gathering in 23- and 87-yard touchdowns, rushing 116 yards on 16 carries, showing the form that made him an all pro bowl selection last year. As a result the Eagles won 21-7 over the Pittsburgh Steelers in the first of their annual two game intra-state meetings.
VIEWS ON BROWN
What gives with Brown?
Eagles' Coach Joe Kuharich says Sunday was the first game that Brown was able to plant two good legs on Franklin Field.
"He was a week late reporting to training camp, never got into real condition; his legs went bad; he was fatigued," Kuharich said of his star half-back.
"Last week in practice he ran like himself for the first time, showed the take off speed necessary to take advantage of the holes," Kuharich explained.
Brown told somewhat a different story, although he admitted he has been feeling poor physically. The 27-year-old Ball State (Ind.) graduate said he felt that maybe he didn't fit in with Kuharich's new coaching regime.
"When I didn't play much the first few games," Brown said, "I felt maybe I wasn't needed."
Brown has been playing with bruised legs. He admits feeling washed out. "Part of my trouble was dehydration. I'm taking medication. I think it was emotional," he said.
Brown said he has been down mentally because he felt he was going to be saddled with decoy duties all year.

CAPPELLETTI KICKS 6 FIELD GOALS SUNDAY

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer
Just let the Duke get inside the 50-yard line and it's dollars to doughnuts he'll kick a field goal.
Duke is the nickname of Boston's Gino Cappelletti who set an American Football League record Sunday by kicking six field goals as the unbeaten Patriots drubbed the Denver Broncos 39-10.
The 30-year-old Gino, a native of Keewauk, Minn., who now lives in Wellesley, Mass., booted three-pointers from the 11, 30, 16, 48, 15 and 18-yard stripes to erase the previous league mark of five FG's in one game by Gene Mingo of Denver against San Diego Oct. 6, 1963. Mingo got his five in seven tries. Cappelletti didn't miss any.
FAULKNER FIRED
Late Sunday night, hours after the game, Jack Faulkner was fired as head coach and general manager of the winless Broncos. In his three years at Denver, Faulkner's record was 9-2-1.
The victory was Boston's fourth straight and kept the Patriots tied with the Buffalo Bills for the lead in the Eastern Division. The Bills won their fourth Saturday night with a come-from-behind 23-20 victory over the Oakland Raiders. Daryle Lamonica came off the bench to spark Buffalo's second-half rally after Oakland led 10-7.
Len Dawson and Bobby Hunt led the Kansas City Chiefs to a 28-7 victory over the Houston Oilers in Sunday's other scheduled AFL game. Dawson threw three touchdowns passes and Hunt equaled a league record by making four interceptions. Austin Gonsoulin of Denver set the mark against Buffalo in 1960 and Bobby Ply of Dallas equaled it in 1962 against San Diego.
The Chiefs, on the comeback trail after their flop last year in their first season after switching from Dallas, now lead Houston by one game in the Western Division. Houston fought to a 17-17 tie with the Jets Saturday night before a league record turnout of 46,828.
Harbold, Stambaugh, Bill Hinkle and Smith were outstanding for the Eagles on defense. Tom Cashman, Hertz and Tanger also pleased Coach Tom Shreiner with their fine pass defense as they held Fazio, a good passer, to just two completions in nine attempts.
FACE PATTON TRADE
The loss dropped the Eagles record to 1-3 on the season. They will try to get back in the win column on Saturday afternoon when they play host to Patton Trade in another 2 o'clock game.

Canadian Loses In Open Playoff

FRESNO, Calif. (AP)—Canada's Al Balding knows how it feels to have your pocket picked by a buddy after his country man, George Knudson, caught him on the final hole and then won the $35,000 Fresno Open in a playoff.
Roommates on the pro golf tour, the two wound up deadlocked at 280 after the regulation 72 holes, eight-under-par. On the second extra hole, the 28-year-old Knudson dropped a birdie putt, the same thing he had done on the final regulation hole.
Those putts gave him the $5,000 first prize and cut Balding's take to $3,200.
Jay Hebert, Bob McCallister and Frank Beard wound up in a three-way tie for third at 283.
Mary Mills Takes Title From Mickey
LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Mary Mills of Ocean Springs, Miss., carded a two-under-par final round 69 Sunday and won the $16,500 Ladies Professional Golf Association Championship.
Miss Mills' 278 total brought her up two strokes better than defending champion Mickey Wright of Dallas, Tex.
Miss Wright, third-round leader, took a double bogey on the first hole Sunday, finishing with a 73 for 280 second-place total.
Tied for third with 281 were Jo Ann Prentice of Perdido Bay, Fla., and Kathy Whitworth of San Antonio, Tex.

Eagles Give St. Francis Tough Argument Before Yielding 6-0 Saturday

St. Francis Prep scored about halfway through the fourth quarter Saturday afternoon to defeat Bermudian Springs 6-0 and remain undefeated in a bruising, hard-fought, defensive football game before an estimated crowd of 1,000 at York Springs. A 29-pass play from Frank Fazio to Bill Timmins was the only score of the defensive struggle.
St. Francis missed an early opportunity to score when Mike Hertz intercepted a Fazio aerial on the Bermudian 18 to halt a first-quarter drive. The Hilltoppers again threatened in the opening minutes of the second quarter when Dick Horman blocked a Jay Smith punt and St. Francis recovered on the Bermudian one. However, the Eagles braced and held for four running plays in a great goal line stand and took over on the six-inch line.
EAGLES REACH 11
The Eagles began a drive of their own following the great defensive effort, only to have time run out on them after they had reached the St. Francis 11. The highlight of the drive was a 43-yard pass play from Todd Tanger to Hertz.
The second half was similar to the first with the Bermudian defense stopping the Hilltoppers on three different occasions inside the Eagle 25. Two bad snaps from center on punting situations and a bad punt into the wind had set up the scoring opportunities for St. Francis.
Early in the fourth quarter the Hilltoppers launched their scoring drive. The big play of the drive before the touchdown pass was a 19-yard run by Fazio after he had been trapped while attempting to pass. Then on a third and 13 situation, Fazio hit Timmins with the 29-yard scoring bomb. Tom Harbold blocked the extra point attempt.
Bermudian could not move the ball after the ensuing kickoff and was forced to punt. The punt went through Fazio's outstretched hands and Tanger recovered the ball on the St. Francis 40. Two pass plays from Tanger to Keith Stambaugh helped the Eagles advance to the 15, but a fourth down pass from there fell incomplete with only seconds remaining.
Harbold, Stambaugh, Bill Hinkle and Smith were outstanding for the Eagles on defense. Tom Cashman, Hertz and Tanger also pleased Coach Tom Shreiner with their fine pass defense as they held Fazio, a good passer, to just two completions in nine attempts.

7,000 GREET PHILLIES AS THEY RETURN

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Philadelphia Phillies, who won the last game of the season but couldn't win the pennant, came home to an enthusiastic welcome by an estimated 7,000 fans Sunday night.
The fans held up banners proclaiming their affection for the Phillies as the team landed at International Airport after a flight from Cincinnati.
"Welcome Home Phillies," said one banner. "We Love You Phillies," said another.
There was little joy for the players, although they beat Cincinnati 10-0 Sunday.
TALK ABOUT '65
The Phillies could have been in a three-way tie for first place if St. Louis lost Sunday. But St. Louis defeated the New York Mets 11-5 to win the National League pennant. The Phillies finished in a tie for second.
"Skin 'Em Alive In '65" urged another sign. Another said, "We Love You Anyway—Always Our Champs."
The Phillies had led the National League by 6½ games as late as Sept. 21, then fell into a disastrous losing streak while Cincinnati and St. Louis went on hot winning streaks.
UNFINISHED BUSINESS
General Manager John Quinn and manager Gene Mauch led the solemn players off the plane. "You know how I feel," Mauch said.
"I feel like we should've won it. This is the only thing in my life that I thought I had a had a chance for that I didn't win."
"I wish I'd done as well as the players."
For the players, there's nothing more to do this year but pack their gear and wait for spring training or go play winter ball.
The Phillies' management will be busy, though. It's got to mail back all those thousands of World Series ticket applications.

BULLETS' WIN MAKES RACE OF MID - ATLANTIC

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Gettysburg has made a race of the Middle Atlantic Conference university division with its stunning football upset Saturday over Delaware.
Three times Gettysburg came from behind, the last with 1:48 to play for a 22-19 victory that ended a nine-game winning streak and inflicted the first conference defeat in three years upon defending Lambert Trophy winner Delaware.
Gettysburg's triumph may open up the MAC race as the Phillies' losing streak tightened the National League pennant fight. It appears as if Gettysburg, Delaware, Bucknell and Temple will slug it out for the 1964 crown.
BISONS TIE HARVARD
Bucknell, an early season loser to Gettysburg, showed signs of rejuvenation Saturday with a 24-21 win over Harvard, the Bisons' first victory over an Ivy League team in 71 years. Substitute quarterback Bill Lerro threw two TD passes, set up another and a field goal for the Bisons.
Temple remained unbeaten with a 22-6 win over Southern Connecticut, scoring all its points on passes. In games involving other MAC university teams, Lafayette and Hofstra fought to a 7-7 tie, while Lehigh was plastered by Yale, 54-0.
The state's big four split.
Penn State fumbled nine times on a dry field—lost six of them—as for the first time in Nittany Lions football history they dropped the first three games of the season. Oregon was the winner 22-14.
PENN LOSES 3-0
Penn lost to Brown 3-0 on a 32-yard field goal with less than two minutes remaining. Pitt won its first game of 1964 after two defeats, topping William and Mary 34-7 on quarterback Fred Mazurek's 10 for 16, 141-yard passing performance. And Villanova, unbeaten in three games, completed only two passes, but both went for TDs in a 27-7 win over VMI.
In the State College Conference, East Stroudsburg remained unbeaten with a 23-66 win over Kutztown, Slippery Rock edged Shippensburg 39-28 as the two teams totally logged 758 yards on offense, Clarion edged Lock Haven 13-12 with Mike Zaccari booting two 25-yard field goals. West Chester won its first of the season, 33-6 over Millersville, California walloped Glassboro 45-0, Indiana romped over Edinboro 31-7, and Bloomsburg lost 26-10 to Brockport after leading 10-3 at halftime.
Susquehanna maintained its unbeaten status with a 22-7 win over St. Lawrence as fullback Bill Galbraith boosted his three game scoring total to 48 points. It was the 11th straight for the Crusaders over a two season period.

St. Louis Wins NL Flag On 1-Game Margin Phils And Reds Tie For Second

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer
Johnny Keane rushed out of the St. Louis dugout, shook hands with Barney Schultz and kissed Mrs. Keane before heading for a champagne shower.
Just 36 minutes before, Dick Sisler had trudged into the Cincinnati dressing room and plopped a penny on his desk.
Keane came out the winner in one of the tightest National League pennant battles in history as his Cardinals whipped the New York Mets 11-5 Sunday, clinched their first pennant since 1946 on the final day of the season and avoided the possibility of the first three-way playoff in history.
PHILS, REDS TIE
Sisler came out the loser as Philadelphia drubbed his Cincinnati club 10-0 and left the Phillies and Reds tied for second place, one game behind.
When Sisler entered the Reds' dressing room, Cincinnati had lost any opportunity to tie the Cardinals outright but could still hope for a three-way tie if St. Louis lost. The scoreboard, however, showed the Cardinals leading 8-4 after seven innings.
"I'm very sorry we couldn't have won it for that gentleman over there," said Sisler as he pointed to the ailing Fred Hutchinson.
Then he reached in his pocket and pulled out a penny and said he had found it in the cab coming to the game Sunday. He also had found a dime and a nickel in the dugout Saturday.
GIANTS ARE 4TH
"I thought they were good luck pieces, but I guess they weren't," he said, and tossed the penny away.
Meanwhile, about one-half hour later, the Cardinals were tossing champagne in their dressing room and obviously tired Keane, trying to catch his breath, was being closely watched by the Cardinals' physician, Dr. I. C. Middleman.
"Oh man, I'm glad that's over," Keane said. "Maybe I can rest now."
The San Francisco Giants wound up in fourth place, losing to the Chicago Cubs 9-2 before Manager Al Dark was fired and Coach Herman Franks named his successor.
BRAVES FINISH 5TH
Milwaukee blanked Pittsburgh 6-0 and finished fifth while the Los Angeles Dodgers whipped Houston 11-1 and tied the Pirates for sixth place.
The Cardinals, who will open the World Series at home against the Yankees, had lost two straight in less than 24 hours to the Mets and were in danger Sunday until the fifth inning as New York held a 3-2 lead.
But after a leadoff walk to Lou Brock by Mets' starter Galen Cisco, the Cardinals got started.
Bill White singled and Ken Boyer slapped a double down the left-field line that tied the score 3-3. White came home on Dick Groat's grounder, and one out later, Dal Maxvill ripped a single that produced another run.
REVENGE ON REDS
The Mets came back with a run in the sixth but Bob Gibson choked off that threat, the Cardinals continued to build their lead on homers by White and Curt Flood and then Schultz, the veteran 38-year-old knuckleballer, ended it.
He came in with two runners on in the ninth and one out. Charlie Smith struck out but Rod Kanehl singled in a run. Then Ed Kranepool hit a foul pop down the third-base line. Catcher Tim McCarver raced after it as Keane raced out to congratulate Schultz.
At Cincinnati, Sisler started John Tisotouri, considered by many a gamble. He was gone by the third inning. Six others followed with much the same success as the tables were turned on the Reds, who had started the Phillies on a 10-game losing streak that cost them their first place.

7,000 GREET PHILLIES AS THEY RETURN

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Philadelphia Phillies, who won the last game of the season but couldn't win the pennant, came home to an enthusiastic welcome by an estimated 7,000 fans Sunday night.
The fans held up banners proclaiming their affection for the Phillies as the team landed at International Airport after a flight from Cincinnati.
"Welcome Home Phillies," said one banner. "We Love You Phillies," said another.
There was little joy for the players, although they beat Cincinnati 10-0 Sunday.
TALK ABOUT '65
The Phillies could have been in a three-way tie for first place if St. Louis lost Sunday. But St. Louis defeated the New York Mets 11-5 to win the National League pennant. The Phillies finished in a tie for second.
"Skin 'Em Alive In '65" urged another sign. Another said, "We Love You Anyway—Always Our Champs."
The Phillies had led the National League by 6½ games as late as Sept. 21, then fell into a disastrous losing streak while Cincinnati and St. Louis went on hot winning streaks.
UNFINISHED BUSINESS
General Manager John Quinn and manager Gene Mauch led the solemn players off the plane. "You know how I feel," Mauch said.
"I feel like we should've won it. This is the only thing in my life that I thought I had a had a chance for that I didn't win."
"I wish I'd done as well as the players."
For the players, there's nothing more to do this year but pack their gear and wait for spring training or go play winter ball.
The Phillies' management will be busy, though. It's got to mail back all those thousands of World Series ticket applications.

EX-CARD FAN YOGI BERRA IS LEADING FOE

By MIKE RECHT

Associated Press Sports Writer
ST. LOUIS (AP)—Yogi Berra, a St. Louis Cardinals fan as a youngster, will return home Wednesday as the enemy, and the Cards are ready for him.

Yogi is looking forward to the homecoming, but he will be returning as manager of the New York Yankees, the Cardinals' opponent in the World Series.

"I didn't care which of the clubs won over there, as long as there was no playoff," Berra said after the Redbirds clinched the pennant Sunday. "We wanted to get started without delay."

"But it will be good to go home."

PLAYOFF THREATENED
"Bring on the Yankees," jubilant St. Louis Manager Johnny Keane told a crowd thronging Busch Stadium long after the Cardinals defeated the New York Mets 11-5.

The triumph broke a first-place tie with Cincinnati, which lost to Philadelphia 10-0 and ended any thought of a two or three-way playoff. The Reds and the Phillies finished one game back.

The pennant is the 10th for the Cards, but their first since 1946, in contrast to the Yankees, who will be playing in their 29th post-season series and a record-setting fifth straight.

RECORD IS EVEN
The Cardinals and Yankees have met four times in the World Series, each winning twice. The last time was in 1943 when the Yankees won, four games to one. The Cardinals won four straight the year before.

The series starts Wednesday in St. Louis with Whitey Ford, 17-6, expected to start for the Yankees against Ray Sadecki, 20-11, for the Cardinals.

The second game Thursday in St. Louis will likely pit New York rookie Mel Stottlemyre, 9-2, against Bob Gibson, 19-12.

A goal by Dan Kopycienski with 6:15 minutes gone by in the last quarter enabled the Temple University soccer team to edge Gettysburg College 4-3, Saturday morning on the Bullets' field.

Both teams turned in an excellent brand of ball. Temple jumped to a 1-0 lead at the 11:00 minute mark of the first frame when John Rennie, assisted by Kopycienski, slammed through a shot from the left side. Three minutes later, Gettysburg knotted the count on Art Hafdelin's goal after receiving a pass from Bob Ehrhart.

Gettysburg moved to a 2-1 lead at intermission with a goal by Bill Triplett with three minutes to go in the half.

Temple came back with seven minutes elapsed in the third period to knot the count on Borys Leoczko's right corner shot. The Bullets still maintained the lead when Triplett connected on his second goal with an assist from Bob Nix with 11 minutes gone by in the third frame. However, the Owls began their move which saw Aleksa Madiraca tally up the middle to tie the score at 3-3 and set the stage for Kopycienski's goal in the final frame.

Gettysburg scored two additional goals, but both were called back when the official spotted the ball out of bounds. Tom Petrone came up with 17 saves for the Bullets while Owl goalie George Scipione collected 11.

Gettysburg, 0-2 on the season, will attempt to bounce back when it entertains Johns Hopkins Wednesday afternoon on the Orange and Blue field.

NOTRE DAME BEATS PURDUE FOR 2ND WIN

By BOB HOOBING

Associated Press Sports Writer
The era of Ara began in an aura of promise at Notre Dame. Now senior John Huarte minus a monogram — is stirring memories of the glory days.

When spring practice ended, Coach Aar Parseghian listed quarterback as his big question mark. Suddenly Huarte has a vise-grip on the throttle and has steered two straight victories, including a 34-15 triumph over Purdue Saturday.

Next: Defensive-minded Air Force.

NAVY BLANKED
Kentucky, which topped Mississippi from top ranking, shocked seventh-place Auburn 20-0 Saturday.

Tailback Ernie Koy ran and kicked Texas' No. 1 Longhorns to a 14th straight victory over Army 17-6 scoring both come from — behind fourth quarter touchdowns himself.

Yale romped to an unprecedented 600th triumph, 54-0 at Lehigh's expense.

Back at the upset factory, once-beaten Michigan State, accused of being greener than the school color, bowled over second-ranked Southern California 17-7. Michigan, voted eighth, put the clamps on hobbled Roger Staubach and whipped sixth-ranked Navy 20-0.

BIG ONE SATURDAY
That sets up this Saturday's interstate Wolverines-Spartans classic at East Lansing.

Other eye-brow raisers included Oklahoma State beating Missouri 10-7 and Wyoming rocking Kansas 17-14.

Ohio State and Illinois, both unbeaten, may decide the eventual Big Ten winner when they collide at Urbana Saturday.

OKLAHOMA BEATEN
The Buckeyes switched to "three yards and a cloud of passes", completing 15 of 23 tosses for 164 yards and a score in the 17-9 conquest of Indiana.

Illinois' quarterback Fred Custardo upstaged Northwestern's Tom Myers, hitting on 10 of 13 for 149 yards with 17-6 results.

Oklahoma, which has had a week off to recuperate from a 40-14 lashing by USC, baits Texas at Dallas in another feature game this week. Fourth-ranked Alabama, coming off a 24-0 conquest of Vanderbilt, meets North Carolina State, Texas A&M visits Southern Cal, UCLA invades Syracuse, which staged a comeback to beat Holy Cross 34-8, and Mississippi is at Florida.

Tenth-ranked Washington, upset victim of Iowa passes and its own mistakes to the tune of 28-18, will play host to Oregon State. And Navy starts it all off against Georgia Tech at Jacksonville, Fla., Friday night.

Wally Bunker, star rookie pitcher with the Baltimore Orioles, ranked as their 10th pitcher when training opened last spring.

NEW OXFORD TRIUMPHS 6-2

New Oxford captured the first game of the best-of-three series for the South Penn Baseball League playoff title by defeating Taneytown, 6-2, at Taneytown on Sunday afternoon. The game was called in the seventh inning due to an injury to a Taneytown player.

Harner and Caple were in a tight pitching struggle until the fifth when New Oxford exploded for five runs to take a 6-0 lead. A New Oxford run in the first had been the only score until the fifth inning uprising. King's triple and steal of home gave New Oxford their first inning run. Miller's bases loaded triple was the key blow of the big fifth inning.

Taneytown scored two runs in the seventh and were threatening for more with the bases loaded when James Horton hit a ground ball to third. Billman, New Oxford third sacker, went to the plate for a force out, but the throw to first for the attempted double play hit Horton in the back of the head. The game was called because Taneytown had no substitutes and Horton was rushed to Annie Warner Hospital where he was treated and discharged.

The series resumes in New Oxford next Sunday afternoon.

TODAY In History

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Today is Monday, Oct. 5, the 279th day of 1964. There are 87 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:
On this date in 1813, the great Indian chief, Tecumseh, was killed in the Battle of the Thames, Canada, while aiding the British against the United States. The Shawnee chief is noted in history for his statesmanship in trying to unite all Indian tribes in defense for their lands against the white settlers.

On this date:
In 1818, Connecticut adopted a state constitution to replace its royal charter.

In 1830, Chester S. Arthur, the 21st president, was born at Union, Vt.

In 1910, St. Patrick's Cathedral in New York was consecrated.

In 1931, the first trans-Pacific, non-stop flight was made by Clyde Pangborn and Hugh Herndon Jr.

In 1953, the New York Yankees became the first baseball club to win five consecutive world championships, defeating the Brooklyn Dodgers.

Ten years ago—Italy and Yugoslavia initiated an agreement in London, ending their nine-year dispute over the free territory of Trieste, each getting a defined zone.

Five years—The U.N. General Assembly was debating the dispute over the United Arab Republic blockade of Israeli shipping through the Suez Canal.

One year ago—Three American newsmen were beaten by South Vietnamese police after a Buddhist monk burned himself to death on a Saigon street.

Rocketing Population Has Outstripped World's Food

By JAMES M. LONG

ROME (AP) — Skyrocketing population has outstripped the increase in world food production in the past 12 months. Man-kind had less per person to eat, and almost everywhere food cost more.

This was the grim picture painted today by the U.N. Food and Agriculture Organization (FAO) in its 1964 annual report. It came against a background of recent food riots in teeming India and the lengthening shadow of hunger over much of the rest of the world.

The actual over-all balance between population gain and food production increase may even be darker than FAO described. Its report contained no figures for Communist China, which has almost as much of the world's population.

RUSSIA LOSES GROUND

The report said it appeared there were some increases in food production in mainland China during 1963-64, but it was unlikely the increases had kept abreast of China's population gain of 15 million a year.

Soviet Russia, with its massive population, had actual food production decreases in the past year.

The FAO report for the year ended July 15, 1964, said world population had increased 2 per cent but food production had gone up slightly less than that.

FIVE-YEAR PICTURE

Much more significant than the single-year comparison was the fact that "for five years now there has been no increase in world agricultural production per capita," the report added.

The past year, however, was the first time FAO has reported production gains actually below population increases.

The increases in production were mostly in North America, 4 per cent, and Oceania, 3 per cent — both regions already eating well.

LIVING COSTS RISE

In developing regions where malnutrition is wider spread, the gains were described as "very slight" — only 1 per cent in Latin America and 2 per cent in the Far East, excluding China.

FAO said that in 74 of the 85 countries for which statistics were available, the cost of living in 1963 was, on the average, higher than in 1962, largely because of an increase in retail food prices.

There were some decreases, FAO said. Food was 8 per cent cheaper in Nigeria, 6 per cent in Sierra Leone, 4 per cent in Tanganyika and Burma and 3 per cent in Kenya.

CONGRESS HAS ENDED; FACES NEW SESSION

By JOE HALL

WASHINGTON (AP) — The 88th Congress finally has quit, its place in history secure because of its action on civil rights, tax reduction, poverty, education and the limited nuclear test-ban treaty.

Some of its members were saying today, however, that President Johnson may call Congress back into session after the Nov. 3 election if he wins.

Said Sen. Russell B. Long, D-La.: "This is too good an opportunity for the President to miss. Sometime in a campaign speech he's going to say, 'The members of Congress raised their own salaries $7,500 but they didn't do anything for the old folks and the poor, so I'm going to call them back to remedy that.'"

INCREASE PAY

Earlier in the session, the House and Senate passed a law to increase the pay of their members from $22,500 to $30,000. Last week, in their rush for adjournment, they brushed aside two key Johnson administration measures — health care for the elderly under Social Security and a $1.06-billion aid package for the impoverished Appalachia region.

The health care proposal died when Senate and House conferees were unable to agree whether it should be attached to a bill to increase retirement payments under Social Security.

The fight killed the payment increases, too. Noting this, House Republican Leader Charles A. Halleck of Indiana said in a statement Sunday that Johnson killed the chances of an increase in Social Security payments "by personally dictating that socialized medicine be forced down congressional throats."

The Cleveland Browns had the best exhibition game record among Eastern Conference Football League teams this summer. They won four out of five games.

Convicted Slayer Seeking New Trial

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Anthony Scoleri, three times convicted of the murder of a Philadelphia grocer, filed a motion in Quarter Sessions Court Friday for a new trial.

Scoleri was convicted yesterday of first-degree murder in the hold-up slaying of Max Gordon. The jury recommended death penalty.

Scoleri's counsel, John R. Carroll, said the request for a new trial attacks not only the verdict, but the admission and exclusion of certain evidence in the trial. He said more specific reasons will be filed after the trial transcript is studied.

IKE AT YORK

HARRISBURG (AP) — Gov. Scranton's office announced Saturday that former President Dwight D. Eisenhower would appear tonight at a Republican rally at the York Fairgrounds. Eisenhower would not make a political speech, however, the announcement said.

Alabama is an Indian name meaning "I clear the thicket."

BILL MILLER IS COMING TO PA.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. William E. Miller, the Republican vice presidential candidate, will campaign in seven Pennsylvania cities next week and the following week.

Dean Burch, the Republican national chairman, announced Sunday, that Miller will visit Scranton, Wilkes-Barre, Reading and Philadelphia on Oct. 13.

On Oct. 22, Miller will tour Harrisburg, Williamsport and Altoona.

Sen. Barry Goldwater, the Republican presidential nominee, will make his first campaign appearance in Pennsylvania Tuesday when he visits Montgomery, Delaware and Bucks counties.

Philadelphian Is Killed On Sunday

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A 28-year-old man was shot and killed Sunday night, apparently by a shotgun, and police were still searching for his slayer today.

Homicide detectives said the body of Dock Sumpter was found on the sidewalk near the intersection of Cumberland and Sartin streets shortly before midnight.

The police said they had arrested no one in the case. They were summoned to the scene by a passerby who said he heard a shot while out walking in the general vicinity.

The victim was a Negro said the police.

PA. GOING TO STREAMLINE DPI STRUCTURE

HARRISBURG (AP) — There's going to be some organizational changes made in the Department of Public Instruction soon.

The aim of the reorganization, says Gov. Scranton, is to provide for greater efficiency through consolidation and centralization, at the same time eliminating duplication.

Scranton made the new organization structure public over the weekend and indicated it would begin to be carried out immediately.

The new reorganization plan has been approved by the states executive board, Scranton said.

OTHER PROPOSALS

One major recommendation is that the new post of executive deputy be created in the office of the superintendent to be in charge of administrative detail. Other major proposals call for:

—Concentration of curriculum planning, now handled by 21 different agencies, into a single bureau.

—Centralization of disbursement of nearly $500 million in school subsidies into the operations of the department controller, rather than the 12 different divisions now involved.

CREATE NEW POST

—Expansion and reorganization of the Bureau of Administrative Services designed to enable the superintendent to exert more managerial control over the entire department.

—And creation of a new post of coordinator of state colleges to permit greater assistance to the college presidents in matters of policy and administration.

The streamlined reorganization was the second in a three-pronged program affecting the state's educational system, Scranton said.

The first was the creation last year of the State Board of Education.

The third, a study of the administrative organization at the 14 state colleges, now is in progress under a special committee appointed by the State Board of Education.

Golfer Barbara Romack heads the social committee on the Ladies' Professional Golf Association tour.

Science Shrinks Piles

New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.

In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place.

Most amazing of all—results were only one out of five passes.

Lincoln Service helps thousands prepare for these tests every year. It is one of the largest and oldest privately owned schools of its kind and is not connected with the government.

For FREE information on government jobs, including list of positions and salaries, fill out coupon and mail at once—TODAY. You will also get full details on how you can prepare yourself for these tests.

Don't delay—ACT NOW!

LINCOLN SERVICE, Dept. 65D

LBJ IS HOST TO 230 STUDENTS ON SATURDAY

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—What is it like to be a college student and be the guest of President Johnson, his wife and their daughter, Lynda Bird?

Leaders from some 230 colleges, including several in Pennsylvania, found out Saturday when the president hosted them. The students were selected by their colleges on the basis of their academic standing and interest in political affairs.

One of them was Robert A. Rovner, 21, president of the Temple University Student Body, and son of Edward H. Rovner, Republican candidate for Congress from Philadelphia's Fifth District. He said he was impressed by Johnson's charm, hospitality and informality.

CONCEDED KENTUCKY

"We had a buffet dinner in the state dining room," the younger Rovner recalled.

Later, Rovner said, he talked to the President personally.

"He (the President) got to talking about the election," Rovner said. "Someone from Kentucky came up and the President sort of conceded Kentucky. He said, 'It doesn't look like we're going to do too good down there.'"

Rovner also said Johnson "did not seem too optimistic about California."

"WOULDN'T MISLEAD YOU"

Johnson refrained from making a partisan political speech to the gathering, said Rovner, adding:

"He (the President) said, 'This is supposed to be a non-political gathering, but I would not mislead you into voting the other way.'"

"This," said Rovner, "got a good laugh."

The Pennsylvania student leaders invited to the White House reception included:

Miss Margaret R. Buck, Wilson College, Chambersburg.

OTHERS IN PARTY

William C. Buettner, Duquesne University, Pittsburgh.

V. Rodger Digilio, Lehigh University, Bethlehem.

Thomas E. Guyden, Lincoln University, Oxford.

Stephen Kerstetter, Bucknell University, Lewisburg.

Benjamin J. Novak, Pennsylvania State University, State College.

Miss Marsha Richards, Chatham College, Pittsburgh.

Joseph G. Sandully, Carnegie Institute of Technology, Pittsburgh.

John Vrana, University of Pittsburgh, Pittsburgh.

TO BEGIN PROBE

HARRISBURG (AP)—The state Justice Department is preparing to begin an investigation into the Philadelphia magistrate's system.

Atty. Gen. Walter E. Alesandroni announced this past weekend that he has ordered the probe because charges of improprieties against the system and certain magistrates "are so serious as to make it essential that their truth or falsity be definitely determined."

Giant sequoia trees are about 4,000 years old.

WOMEN PAST 21 WITH BLADDER IRRITATION

After 21, common kidney or bladder irritations affect twice as many women as men and may make you tense and nervous from too frequent, burning or itching urination both day and night. Secondly, you may lose sleep and suffer from headaches, backache and feel old, tired, depressed. In such irritation, CYS-TEX usually brings fast, relaxing comfort by curbing irritating germs in urine, acid urine and by analgesic pain relief. Get CYS-TEX at drugists. Feel better fast.

PATRIOT BACKS LBJ AND SCOTT

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Harrisburg Patriot-News, a politically independent Pennsylvania newspaper, today endorsed Sen. Hugh Scott, Philadelphia Republican, for re-election in November.

The paper, one of a number owned by Samuel J. Newhouse, Sunday called in its lead editorial for the election of President Johnson—the first time it has supported a Democratic nominee for that office since the end of World War II.

The Patriot-News had high praise for Scott's Democratic opponent, Genevieve Blatt, calling her a competent public official held "in high esteem" by many Pennsylvanians, including the paper.

However, it felt Scott's reelection was vital if the two-party system was to continue as it now is and the GOP was to avoid becoming "a party that hews to extremes." It also applauded the senator's "moderation" and "independence" in public life.

The paper considered Johnson to be "qualified by experience and temperament" for the presidency while it labeled Barry Goldwater, his opponent, a "man of imprecision, confusion and dissension."

18 Are Killed In Traffic Mishaps

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Six pedestrians were struck down and killed by cars or trucks along Pennsylvania's streets and highways over the weekend. In all, 18 persons lost their lives in traffic mishaps during the weekend counting period of 6 p.m. Friday to midnight Sunday.

Says Pa. Economy Outlook Is Bright

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. (AP)—A business analyst at the Pennsylvania State University paints a bright picture for the state of the economy in Pennsylvania.

An associate, meanwhile, looks at the national economy and attributes its prosperous state, in part, to this year's federal income tax cut.

Both were writing in the current issue of the Pennsylvania Business Survey.

Dr. Ned Shilling, of the university's Bureau of Business Research, said the outlook in Pennsylvania is good because: steel production rebounded from the usual summer cutback; non farm employment has been improving consistently this year; and the work week in manufacturing plants still was getting larger.

CRALEY FOR CONGRESS

Let a Positive Voice Speak for YOU in Washington

Neiman Craley, vigorous young businessman, will give York, Adams and Cumberland counties a positive voice in the U. S. Congress. His votes will be in the best interest of the majority — not just the radical right minority.

P. LAW FORD COMMUTES BY HELICOPTER

By BOB THOMAS

AP Movie-Television Writer HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Tell you how debonair Peter Lawford is. He's the only actor I know who goes to work in a helicopter.

While he was doing a cameo role in "Sylvia" with Carroll Baker and George Maharis, Peter had a helicopter pick him up on the beach in front of his Santa Monica home. Then he alighted 11.5 miles eastward in a clearing made especially for his arrival near the "Bonanza" Western street on the Paramount lot.

"The only way to commute," said he. "In that cross-town traffic at the hour I have to go to work it would take 45 minutes to get to the studio. This way I make it in 8."

OWNS AN INTEREST

He doesn't just hire the helicopter the way we would hail a cab. "That would cost too much — something like $75 an hour," he explained. "I own an interest in the helicopter service, so if the plane is not in use, it's available to me. Saves a lot of time. It was also very helpful when we were scouting locations for my production, 'Johnny Cool.'"

Peter was making one of his frequent journeys to act in Hollywood, his last picture being "Dead Ringer" with Bette Davis. He keeps the Santa Monica house but spends much of his time in New York where he is a part of the Kennedy colony in a four-block radius centering on Fifth Avenue. His wife is the former Patricia Kennedy.

VARIETY OF INTERESTS

"Yes, we finally found a place to stay," he said with a grin.

The reference was to the Lawfords' being blackballed from purchasing an apartment in a building because one of the tenants objected that he was an actor and she was a Democrat.

Happy that he has found shelter for his wife and three children, Peter is devoting himself to a variety of interests, including acting.

Peter also makes appearances with the traveling exhibit of the John F. Kennedy Memorial Library, most recently in San Diego and San Francisco.

Canadian rider Ron Turcotte, making his first appearance at New York tracks this year, rode nine winners in 134 races at the Saratoga meeting.
